2.1 Timeline

Date	Direction	Class	Summary	Copy
3 Sep 2026	→ to institution	request	The requester submits evidence of suspected historic misconduct concerning a property dispute and asks the CPS to consider a future private-prosecution takeover under s.6(2) POA 1985.	email · text
3 Sep 2026	← from institution	acknowledgement only	An automatic bilingual reply confirms receipt and states a response will follow within three working days.	email · text
9 Sep 2026	← from institution	redirected elsewhere	The Victim Liaison Unit states it cannot comment on hypothetical matters, advises reporting suspected offences to police, and declines to pre-judge any future private-prosecution takeover decision.	email · text
27 Sep 2026	→ to institution	chase	The requester chases the 3 September submission, asks for confirmation of receipt, a reference number, and whether the CPS will consider the material.	email · text
29 Sep 2026	← from institution	fee or clarification demand	The Victim Liaison Officer states no case file can be located and asks the requester to obtain a CPS Unique Reference Number from the officer in the case by 13 October 2026.	email · text
30 Sep 2026	→ to institution	request	The requester provides further material, police and Land Registry reference numbers, and asks CPS Cymru to identify any existing record and pass material to the responsible team.	email · text
8 Oct 2026	← from institution	acknowledgement only	A Victim Liaison Officer apologises for the delay, confirms the 30 September email has been passed to a CPS manager for advice, and states a further response will follow.	email · text
10 Oct 2026	→ to institution	chase	The requester acknowledges the 8 October update and asks to be kept informed of further progress.	email · text
21 Oct 2026	← from institution	redirected elsewhere	The CPS states it cannot accept or consider evidence sent directly by members of the public, has no knowledge of the referenced case, and directs the requester to the police.	email · text
21 Oct 2026	→ to institution	chase	The requester follows up.	email · text

Note: The CPS repeatedly declines to assess the submitted material directly and directs the requester to the police for any criminal investigation.
