2.1 Timeline

Date	Direction	Class	Summary	Copy
6 Feb 2026	← from institution	fee or clarification demand	The records team offers free in-person searchroom access with registration or paid digital copies of the estate plans.	email · text
6 Feb 2026	→ to institution	complaint	The requester reframes the correspondence as a concern about historical record misdescription rather than a routine access request and asks which department handles such concerns.	email · text
18 Feb 2026	← from institution	correspondence (no disclosure)	The archive states it holds only records as deposited, cannot verify their accuracy, and cannot provide free copies due to income targets.	email · text
18 Feb 2026	→ to institution	complaint	The requester reiterates the concern about record accuracy and asks which body or officer handles asserts of historical misrepresentation in public records.	email · text
19 Feb 2026	← from institution	redirected elsewhere	The archive suggests contacting the National Archives as the body responsible for public records in England and Wales.	email · text
19 Feb 2026	→ to institution	request	The requester asks whether superseded or removed catalogue index entries would still be retained within archival metadata systems after digitisation.	email · text
20 Feb 2026	← from institution	substantive disclosure	The archive explains that original paper catalogues and cards were not retained after digitisation and that withdrawn documents' catalogue descriptions are removed.	email · text
20 Feb 2026	→ to institution	request	The requester asks whether an internal administrative record is kept of withdrawn privately deposited material, including depositor identity and withdrawal date.	email · text
23 Feb 2026	← from institution	substantive disclosure	The archive confirms that a record is kept on file noting when withdrawn items were removed and by whom.	email · text
